FADS

I'm sure that most of you have been shopping for clothes or shoes before, right? It's so hard to decide what to get. There are so many totally awesome styles of shoes that your mind gets like blown away trying to decide. You've got such a large selection, like duck shoes, cowboy boots, hiking boots, leather casuals, ballet slippers. And don't forget the latest fad, all the different shoe laces. They range from rainbow-striped to Smurf and E.T. laces! Or clothes; mini-skirts and leg warmers are in, they're like so decent! Like, how many people do you see wearing plaid, hip-hugger cuffed, elephant-legged pants? Grody to the max! Like, I wouldn't be caught dead in those!

I'm sure at one time or another you've caught yourself buying or not buying something just because it's either "in" or totally gross! If you find yourself one of those people who does not get into some kind of fad or trend, you're probably a geek and you may as well "bag your face."

HOMECOMING 1982

It all started on the Friday before homecoming week with a pep-fest and the introduction of the king and queen candidates. When Monday came along, the students were filled with school spirit; everyone wore their faded bib overalls, hats, and buttons of all sorts. As the day passed on into evening, coronation came along with it. The events started off with a couple of funny skits and the introduction of the candidates by the Master and Mistress of ceremonies, J. Knutson and D. Philstrom. Soon after, J. Elmquist sang the song "The Rainbow Connection." Tension grew! Everyone knew that the king and queen soon would be chosen. Seconds later, King Roger Haugland and Queen Kate Murray were crowned. That was a night neither one of them would forget.

Tuesday was Girls' Hush Day. Yes boys, even your favorite gal wasn't to say anything to you or she would have to surrender her bow. For all of you Punkers, Wednesday was your day. It was time for you to let people know who you really were. Masters were busy ruling over their servants on Servant Day, Thursday. To end the week in good taste, Friday was claimed as Dress-up Day. Mr. Hubbard complimented the school on having the best-dressed student body around. That night was the big Homecoming football game. The fans were in great spirit as they cheered our Saints on. During halftime, we watched the Marching Band perform a Mexican fiesta, which was led by Matador T. Harms. This helped keep the festivities of the evening alive. The traditional Homecoming dance was held following the game. The music was provided by Jay Philpott from WLOL Sound and Light Show. The Homecoming theme "Enjoy What Is . . Before It Isn't . . . " sure held true in this year's Homecoming.

ENJOY WHAT IS . . . BEFORE IT ISN'T

Enjoy the good times we have with our friends. Homecoming is only one example of those good times. It is a week full of endless preparations, last-minute final touches, and lots of school spirit! The spirit day, the pep-fest, the football game and the dance are what contribute to the spirit of the week. For the seniors, however, it holds something else. It's their last Homecoming. When we look back on our high school years, the most memorable times will be those that we have shared with our friends. This is why we should enjoy what is before it isn't and make the most of what we have now. For today is only here a short while and before we know it, it is only a memory.

1. Playing the National Anthem, the Saints' Marching Band starts off the spirit of the night. 2. The admiring Prince and Princess give the new Queen roses. 3. Hey Greg! We'll challenge your power! 4. Now that's a true Saint. 5. A special moment at the dance for C. Latvala.

WHAT MAKES STUDENT LIFE?

The daily events that occur in a student's life are often overlooked. Students have many things going at times. As soon as they get to school they have their class work, assignments and tests, not to mention all the socializing.

Many students also are involved in extracurricular activities which include sports, with practices and games, and after-school activities like band, choir, speech or debate. Even with all of these activities going on, some students still choose to tackle a job. But a student needs more than these things. A student needs time alone to sort out his or her feelings, whether good or bad.

Along with being a student comes the pressures of becoming an adult. To overcome these pressures we have to remember who we are and what we are to the people around us . . . people like our family, friends and that special guy or gal in so many of our lives. Dating is an important part of high school life; it's when you discover new people and find out more about them and yourself. It is a time for us to meet people away from school . . . people from other schools, cities, states and countries.

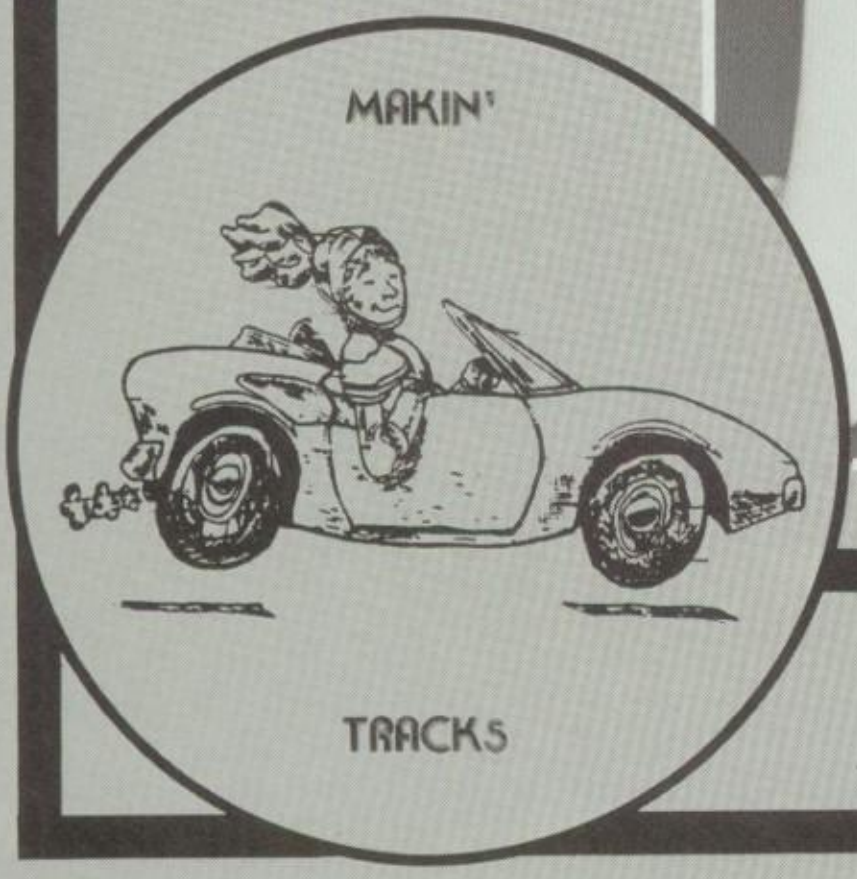
MAKIN' TRACKS

Every teenager's dream is a nice car . . . going where you want and when you want, with some drawbacks of course. Who pays for upkeep, insurance and, most of all, the gas at an average cost of $1.10 a gallon? For some students, car-pooling is the answer. It only costs you a buck or two, and being with friends is more fun. Taking the school bus is the next solution. As that bus comes down that road, you know what's in store for your ears as you get on. That bus may be free, but it's not the place to be if you intend to relax . . . Then, for a last resort, use your feet!

1. The cheerful gymnastic squad is about to make tracks to another meet. 2. T. Sweet, can you really ride a wheelie? 3. What gets you to school? 4. Footprints leading to Super Valu . . . What do they bring back? MUNCHIES! 5. When the seasons change, the tracks change. Snowmobiling is a favorite in Saints' Country.



SENIORS

CLASS MOTTO:

We have grown and the years have gone fast,
But we'll never forget the times of the past.

CLASS COLORS:

Silver and Blue

CLASS FLOWER:

White Rose/Blue Carnation

Preparation for your senior year begins at the end of your junior year. What are the essentials for a senior? They are different for every student. Passing your dreaded Social Problems class and fighting your way through Basic Writing Skills in English are just a couple examples.

Maintaining good grades throughout high school is also important. The classes are tough and the homework can be tiring. The payoff, however, is making one of the honor rolls, especially the Principal's Honor Roll.

For now we can only wait for what lies ahead: college, jobs, or marriage. In the years to come, we will hold in our possession the memories from the past, and Lances we have accumulated during our high school years that contain our friends.

Your pass to the future and your admittance to college will be the diploma you receive on graduation night. To top off the end of your senior year are the announcements that you send to everyone stating that you are now permitted to leave school. You are finally out!

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS:

TROY KOLP: CLASS OF 1983

During the past year and a half Troy and I had grown very close. I was able to help Troy out of a lot of slumps, and I learned what an exceptional person he was. There were many times when he wanted to give up on himself, but I worked to make him understand that wasn't right. I saw him grow from a very frustrated person to a very strong person.

During high school Troy enjoyed track and welding. He was good at both; he could have been the best. But Troy was troubled. He felt at times that no one understood. There were times I wanted to end our friendship, but Troy wouldn't accept that. He knew in the end that things would work out, and we taught each other how to live, love, laugh, and cry.

What happened on the night of May 15, 1983, will be a time in our lives that we who knew him will always remember. We lost a son, a brother, and a loving boyfriend. We have all learned a valuable lesson; one that will stay with us forever. We can only remember Troy the way he was; a very special and dear friend to all. He touched all our lives somehow, but especially mine.

— Debbi Davis

IN MEMORY OF TROY

Thank you Lord for giving us Troy, a brother and a son.
With grief so great, it's hard to say, but Lord, Thy will be done.
You gave us Troy for eighteen years which wasn't very long,
But lessons you wanted us to teach, among these right from wrong,
Were learned by Troy so quickly that his stay on Earth was brief.
Now help us Lord to understand, and help us bear our grief.

But through all, smiles and tears,
We're honored Lord that you chose us
To share Troy's eighteen years.
We know you waited for him Lord and welcomed him with open arms.
You've taken him to spare him from any of life's harms.

Now, if we may, to Troy we say,
"Though we grieve, please don't feel sad.
In life it's hard, but we too must learn to take the good along with bad.
Remember, Troy, WE LOVE YOU AND HOW VERY MUCH WE CARED,
And know how many hearts you've touched; how many lives you've shared.
When our times come, we'll meet again and pain we'll feel no more
We know that YOU will be the one to open heaven's door.
The Lord gives you eternal life so you really are not gone.
Your soul's away, but your memories stay.
So, to us Troy, YOU'LL ALWAYS LIVE ON."
— Mrs. Rosa Kolp

SENIORS LOOK BACK . . .

Seniors tend to do some weird things when the calendar moves toward the end of their final days in school. There's a lot of goofing off, and a lot of time is spent with friends before they leave and go their separate ways. Teachers like to call this "Senioritis," but it's a special time for all the seniors. High school is a place to meet people, make friends, find out what you like to do and what you're good at, and most importantly it's a time to know yourself better. After the diploma is in your hands, what's next? For some it's starting all over again to college; for others it's straight to work. Whatever you choose, it's a choice that must be made by every senior. Once you decide, you can start makin' tracks to new friends, new learning and new goals.

THANK YOU MISS FITZGERALD

After ten years of balancing the books for the St. Francis High School Lance, Miss Sharon Fitzgerald passed the advisership to first-year teacher Mr. Robert Held in 1982-83. Planning organizing, laboring, and guiding a yearbook to completion is indeed a balancing act, and Miss Fitzgerald deserves ten years worth of thanks for the efforts she contributed.

"There's just no glory or recognition in being a yearbook staff member like there is in sports and other extracurricular activities," says Miss Fitzgerald. "For that reason, it takes a special kind of student to make the yearbook a success. It takes kids that are willing to work long hours with very little in return."

In his first year as a yearbook adviser, Mr. Held quickly learned how demanding and challenging this task can be. He discovered the difficulty of coordinating student staff work and responsibilities. These realizations made Mr. Held's respect for the job Miss Fitzgerald had done grow to new dimensions.

"Yearbooking is a true test for everyone involved; that goes for the student staffers as well as the adviser," says Mr. Held. "All I can say is that if I survive as long as Miss Fitzgerald, I'd be satisfied."

DECA: WHAT IS IT ANYWAY?

When people hear about DECA, their most common response is, "What is DECA, anyway?" Quite simply, DECA, or Distributive Education Clubs of America, is a national organization which gets the individual involved in business, our economic system, and future careers.

In DECA, people get the chance to learn about a possible future career while having fun at the same time. You may learn everything from how to perform a successful job interview to setting your career goals.

Mr. Donald Schleper is the St. Francis Chapter advisor who helps arrange a lot of the things with the DECA officers and members from fund raisers to District, State, and National Competition.

In those competitive events (Districts, State, and Nationals), members get the chance to compete in different business areas. Everything from Job interview & Sales Demonstration to Apparel & Accessory and Sales Promotion (or advertising) are included.

This year's officers are: President-Andy Charrier; Vice-President-Andrea Hahn; Treasurer- Shelly Kilker; Secretary-Lisa Patrow; Historian-Merri Anderson; Parliamentarian-Angie Ross

What is DECA?? ????? It's something you ought to be in.

AFS

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Hi, my name is Morten Joergensen; I'm 16, and I spent the last year at St. Francis High School. It sure hasn't been a waste of time. It was really great coming to an American high school. People asked me to write good and bad about the school, but there ain't much bad I can write. I could fill out more than a couple of pages if I should write all the good things about St. Francis. I won't do that; I only got a couple of lines to write. You all probably know how nice it is anyway.

– Morten Joergensen

St. Francis is a wonderful place, happy memories of which I will carry with me for the rest of my life. The kindness and friendliness of the people here, YOU, have made my stay here a marvelous one. Thank you one and all.

– Stephen Stray

I really enjoyed my year in St. Francis. I met a lot of nice and interesting people here. It was just great learning about U.S.A. and I'll never forget my stay.

– Jukka Tormanen

The 1982-83 school year was made more enjoyable due to the presence of three fine young men from other countries: Morten Joergensen of Denmark, Stephen Stray of Australia, and Jukka Tormanen of Finland. Morten was outgoing and could make you laugh; Stephen was a serious student and soft-spoken; Jukka was very personable and always willing to talk.

Hunt, T.

The practice field is quiet now; the flags are rolled and stored; halftime shows are filed away; the 1982 marching band season is over. But the memories of the past summer and fall burn in the minds of all as the planning of the next marching season silently begins.

With eight parades and constant practice, the 120 members of the St. Francis Marching Saints achieved numerous awards, trophies, and honors. For the second straight year, the St. Francis Flagline captured the Outstanding Color guard plaque at Farmington while aiding the band to earn the 1st-place trophy. Adding to the fun, Mr. Zschunke promised to shave off his beard if the band received the 1st-place trophy; they did - he did!

The Marching Saints were also chosen by the Wenger Company to pose for its state, regional, and international catalogs! KMOM Radio in Monticello featured the band on the radio and interviewed Laura Packard, Judy Howland, and Patti Carty. The Minneapolis Aquatennial parade is always the highlight of the summer, and this year the Marching Saints were treated afterwards by the Fall marching band was really something else this year. Entertainment, music, surprises, and many hours of practice on Saturday mornings! New Drum Major Alison Solfield led the 90-member Marching Saints through four shows. The first show was highlighted by the "Send in the Clowns" final with Jodi Kampa and Tammie Frost as the clowns. The second show was the spectacular bullfight which pitted Great Manolete (Tisha Harms) against the fierce El Toro (Laura Fanucci and Gloria Pittman). Area trumpet great Bob Kase was featured with the band during the third show. The season capper had the band wearing 3-D glasses and the Drumline rapping out great features. The traditional "collapse" ending had everyone looking toward next year. The always exciting Indoor Concert climaxed an unforgettable year and one which Mr. Zschunke dubbed at the emotional year-end banquet as, "The best year yet!"

MADRIGALS

The Madrigal Choir is unique in many ways. The members take this class for no credit but extract more credit than can be accounted for in grades.

The Madrigal Choir is a close-knit group of students who participate in many social events, including putting on the popular Madrigal Dinner, which was a great success. The group also sang in a wedding. They took part in invitational competitions around the state and did well in everything they participated in.

SCANDINAVIAN TOUR

After months of planning, hoping, and penny-pinching the dreams of 77 choir members came true. On Saturday, March 26, 1983, the official St. Francis High School Choir Scandinavian Tour became a reality. FIRST STOP: New York — "The Big Apple!" From New York the flight took eight hours. Mr. Carlson insisted on having us sing for the passengers, including Carl Erik Olivebring who is half-brother to the old King of Sweden. We arrived in Copenhagen, Denmark, and were greeted by gray skies and rain, but sunny foreign faces. The Hotel Selandia provided our night's accomodations at the center of the Hennepin Avenue of Copenhagen. How many people can say they've slept across the street from "Wonderland?" We can.

The first morning we had our first taste of a Scandinavian breakfast: meat, cheese, bread, and soft-boiled eggs. This also happened to be our first taste of lunch, dinner, and supper: the food didn't have much variety. Our sight-seeing began with a trip to Kronborg Castle with original designs and furnishings from the days of Hamlet. Then we were ferried across to Sweden to begin our concert tour. The first official performance was held at Brahehallen (a music hall) in Jönköping which began a busy week of touring quaint Swedish towns and many elaborate churches. We gave nine concerts in six days.

A favorite memory from that week in Sweden was a small town called Amal. This was our first concert to people our own age, and it was where we had our first experiences staying in Swedish homes. In the afternoon we had an exchange concert at the Karlbergsgymnasiet (a high school). That evening we gave our first church concert.

A late-night visit to a wood-carving shop where they created the famous Dala Horse was another favorite experience for everyone. The shop was opened especially for us and we showed our appreciation by singing a few songs for the owners and nearly bought the place out.

Norway greeted us with cloudy skies and snow. Vedår, our bus driver, had promised us sunny skies in his homeland, so we were disappointed. But as soon as we were over the mountains the sun smiled, and we were awed by the beauty of the regal mountains and serene fiords. Spirits brightened and a cheery, party-like atmosphere prevailed.

The favorite memories from Norway were led by our stay at a ski resort in Ostaset. There was a pool and billiards, and that's where talent and hidden comedy in kids and chaperones alike came out in a talent show.

To close the tour we recorded at the Norweigan Broadcasting Studios and gave a concert at the Hartvig Nissens Skole. We departed for Copenhagen aboard the King Olaf V, and that was quite different than being out on Lake George. The flight home seemed longer than the flight across. We can report that the tour was a great success and an experience which will always be remembered. We all returned with a great appreciation for the beauty of Scandinavia, the friendship of foreign people, as well as a great appreciation for our own county . . . and bathtubs!

ARE STF DEBATERS STATE AND NATIONAL CHAMPIONS?

AFFIRMATIVE!

"These two have responded beautifully under pressure."

— R. Keillor

As if winning the Minnesota State Debate Championship wasn't prestigious enough, St. Francis seniors Steve Florman and Andy Charrier went on to greater heights by winning the National Tournament at Park Hill High School in Kansas City, Mo., in June. After an impressive victory during the Minnesota championships at St. Anthony High School in early February, Florman, Charrier, and strategist-coach Randy Keillor began planning for their appearance at Nationals. They must have struck the right mode of attack because they went on to defeat teams from nine different states on their way to becoming the No. 1 debaters in the United States.

St. Francis skillfully manipulated its affirmative position to defeat Bronx School of Science in the national finals. That avenged an earlier setback to the elite New York School during the double-elimination tourney. An audience of more than 1,000 observed the championship match which climaxed the 116-team meet. St. Francis is believed to be the smallest town to ever become national champions.

Debate is the oldest activity to hold a state tournament in Minnesota and has had national championships since 1931. Thousands of students participate across the country, all debating the same topic. The 1982-83 topic was: "Resolved: that the United States should significantly curtail its arms sales to other countries." Debaters must be prepared to defend either side of the resolution.

STF debaters had an outstanding season by winning the Governor's Cup Tournament at Chaska and placing second at the Little Nationals at South St. Paul. The highlight came when the varsity team of Florman and Charrier, with junior Roxy Green serving as alternate, won the Minnesota title to become the first St. Francis High School team to win a state championship. The team owes much of its success to the long hours of research and dedicated coaching of Mr. Keillor. He has been the instrumental force in building a solid debate program which can now call itself the best in the U.S.A.

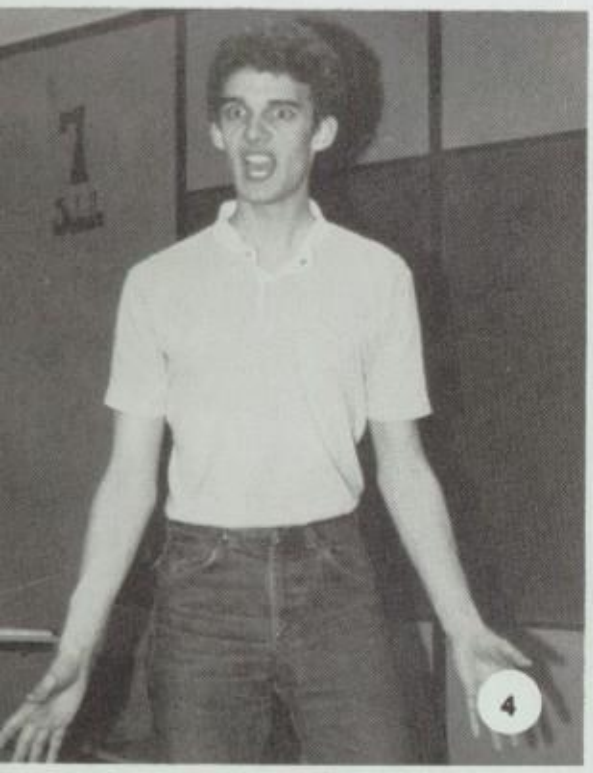
SIX SPEECHIES MAKE STATE

It was another big year for St. Francis Speech – the biggest yet. Six seniors qualified for the state tournament (a school record) and four came home with honors. Terri Anderson (poetry) and Steve Florman (discussion) were state champions while Laura Fanucci (extemporaneous reading/poetry) and Andy Charrier (extemporaneous speaking) were state runners-up. Jay Elmquist (storytelling) and Barb Isle (extemporaneous reading/prose) were also state qualifiers.

The Speechies collected first-place trophies at Coon Rapids and Highland Park while taking seconds at Bloomington Jefferson and Sub-Regionals. The team placed third at Shakopee, Richfield, and Regional. St. Francis tied with Princeton for the conference title to make it four straight years of dominance. Team President Laura Fanucci earned "The Rock" award for her extra efforts, and coaches Pat Foley and Terri Subialka provided strong leadership.



1. There was no shortage of bodies on the 1982-83 championship Speech team as this horde of Speechies indicates. 2. These six seniors earned their way to the state tournament: (L to R) A. The Crier continued its excellence as a school news magazine in 1982-83 offering a wide variety of coverage for its 200-plus subscribers. The paper had a sharp, clean appearance with fine lay-out, graphics and photo reproduction. The articles included reporting on sports, news, extracurricular activities, community and school highlights, variety stories, discovery, and fine arts.

Senior Editor Joy Russell says, "The Crier is written for the students' enjoyment. It's written to inform, enlighten, and entertain. Because it is the St. Francis High School Crier, the staff would like to get the students more involved. It was a fantastic year, but Crier staffers won't be satisfied until the Crier gains 1,300 subscribers and gets unlimited student involvement."

Awards announced by Faculty Adviser Mr. Mark Bender during the Language Arts Banquet honored Scott Knouse and Cassie Huesmann (Best Writers), Kate Hanson (Hardest Worker), Andrea Hahn (Most Responsible), and Joy Russell (Best All-Around).

SPORTS

STRAIN, PAIN AND GAIN

Weightlifting remains a popular endeavor among Saints. The school Lift-a-thon was full of strain and pain. Winners included: Tom Berglund (hwt.), A.J. Nuebel (198), Dennis Brown-Bret Severtson-Steve Leach (181), Curt Moe (167), Dale Groettum (157), Rich Walsh (148), Todd Kampa (132), Mike Leibel (123), and Deb Philstrom (girls).

ONE PLAY AWAY

"One play" . . . that's what could have made the St. Francis Fighting Saints' season a more successful one. The 1981 Fighting Saints went undefeated until a state tournament loss ended their season with a 10-1 record. Those are hard footsteps for anyone to follow. Although there was plenty of hard work and many extra practices, the 1982 team finished with a 3-6 record. Some of the comments the players made about their season were: "depressing;" "frustration;" "disappointing;" "could haves and should haves." They started the season by losing their first three games by that "one play." A number of important players were lost from the State Tournament team. Many good players returned and many were newly discovered, but the team couldn't find the winning ingredients. According to Mr. Sobieck, the biggest reason for the losing season was inexperience. "We only had two returning starters," he said. "This was the first year we had a J.V. team for the Juniors and Seniors who didn't play varsity. That should give the 1983-'84 team more experience," he added with a smile.

Awards went out to many players. Outstanding players included: Jeff Jones was given the Double-Axe Award; A.J. Nuebel received the Hammer Award for the second year; Most Improved Award went to Rich Navratil; All- Conference choices were A.J. Nuebel and Rod Zimbeck; Jeff Jones and Rich Navratil both got All-Conference Honorable Mention. A.J. Nuebel also set the school record for the most defensive points. Other honors were earned by Steve Busch, who made the most interceptions; two people tied for recovering the most fumbles- Craig Mars and Dean Murray; Rich Navratil was responsible for causing the most fumbles. The Best Yardsmen on the offense were Mark Mastrian and Dan Moore. Captains for the 1982-'83 season were Scott Taff, Greg Moser, Jeff Jones and A.J. Nuebel.

VOLLEYBALL SEASON WAS ROLLER-COASTER

The 1982 volleyball season was filled with frustrations. Under the direction of Coach Joan Hance, the team struggled through a 4-5 conference season and a 7-17 overall campaign. Adjusting to a new coach is always a challenge because all coaches have their own techniques and approaches to their sport. Inexperience was added to the problems of adjustment and the match results reflected these situations. The team consisted of five seniors, eight juniors and one sophomore. Only co-captains Lori Shebetka and Deanna Mason were returning letter-winners.

After season-opening losses to Anoka and Foley, the Saints drilled Milaca 18-3, 18-2 and showed signs of strength. But a one-win, three-loss performance in the Columbia Heights Invitational started a slump that lasted five matches. When a team is experiencing a slump, practices drag by and the excitement level is low. Conference wins over North Branch and Pine City at mid-season broke the slump, but a poor showing at the Cooper-Armstrong Invitational (one win, four losses) hurt. The Saints lost their last three matches in regular-season play and were underdogs going into the sub-regionals.

St. Francis drew rival Cambridge in the opening round. The Bluejackets had defeated the Saints in two straight games earlier in the year. This time, however, the determined Saints toppled the overconfident Cambridge crew with an 18-15, 18-10 upset. That victory qualified St. Francis for the tourney's second round in Duluth. A tough Hibbing team eliminated the Saints 18-4, 18-4 and went on to claim the Region 7AA championship and appear in the state tournament.

It was an up and down season. There were many underclassmen gaining experience to build promise for next season.

CROSS COUNTRY CLAIMS 1ST CONFERENCE TITLE

The boys' cross country team made its own contribution to school athletic history by winning their first Rum River Conference championship in 1982. Coach Al Angell called this group, "The best St. Francis team in recent memory."

The individual pace-setter for the boys was All-Conference sophomore Derrick Poirier, who defeated 96% of his opponents and was the top runner in six meets (including the conference and Pine City Invitational).

Jeremy Moe was the captain for the boys, while Carrie Latvala and Cassie Huesmann were co-captains for the girls.

THE SENIOR DOMINATED TEAM ACES FOES

The girls' tennis team was led by two-year co-captains Joy Russell and Brenda Danielson. The usual starting lineup was Danielson (No. 1 singles), Vicki Lenz (No. 2 singles), Shelly Froemming (No. 3 singles), Russell and Tami Osmondson (No. 1 doubles), Laura Packard and Deb Green (No. 2 doubles). All-Conference honors were earned by Danielson, Packard and Lenz. That trio led the team to a 9-4 overall record. The Saints beat Grand Rapids and Chisago Lakes in regional matches before losing to Hibbing in the semifinals. Other members included juniors Rose Frie, Kim Dahmen, Lori Torok, sophomore Cheri Chapel and freshman Kirstin Chatfield.

FALL CHEERLEADING

There's more to being a cheerleader than a fancy uniform and pom-poms. Cheerleading involves work, endurance, and strength; and it involves attitude, spirit, and leadership. Practices start early in the summer to prepare for the fall sports seasons and the first pep-fest. Stepping in front of hundreds of students is exhilarating, and when the band hits the first few notes of the school song, your heart leaps to the start of a new season of thrills and cheers.

Cheerleading is a commitment. It demands physical strength and flexibility for mounts, jumps, and the splits. It is far more work than most fans think. Even the pom-poms get heavy on certain occasions. All of this exertion demands continual practice and exercise. Mrs. Lani Larson was the new advisor this year. She helped the squads develop a new look through new uniforms and new attitudes.
As one cheerleader said, "Cheerleading is being yourself and having fun at it."

GYMNASTS MEET SUCCESS

The number 2 seemed to hound the gymnastics team. There were two state qualifiers – senior Gloria Pittman (bars) and junior Traci Anderson (all-around) – and the team placed second in the conference, sub-region and region meets. They finished 9-4 in all duals and 5-0 in conference duals.

Pittman and senior Traci Million were individual pace-setters as co-captains. Four gymnasts were selected All-Conference as Pittman (bars), Million (beam and floor), Anderson (all-around), and junior Becky Howland (vault) were honored. Senior Michelle Schuster earned Honorable Mention on bars. The team peaked during tournaments by scoring their highest totals in sub-region and region competition.

ONE GAME AWAY

Saintmania Fever – Catch It! If you didn't catch a boys' basketball game during the '82-'83 season, you missed the best show in town. Excitement and enthusiasm were running wild and so were the Saints. The Saints made things happen by advancing to the Region 7AA finals at the Duluth Arena. They fell a game shy of the state meet in a loss to conference rival Chisago Lakes, 52-43. Togetherness and depth were key ingredients in the team's success. STF finished 17-5 overall and had a shot at the conference title which was decided in a disappointing 53-52 homecourt defeat to Mora in the closing seconds.

Senior standout Rod Zimbeck and junior Jared Elmquist were All-Conference choices while senior Greg Moser and junior Rick Theisen were Honorable Mention. Zimbeck also earned the team's MVP award for his contributions as leading scorer and rebounder. Other team honors went to junior Russ Bakke as Most Improved Player, junior Steve Priem for Best Freethrow Percentage, and senior Craig Mars as winner of the Hustle Award. Other team members included seniors Steve Busch, Rich Navratil, juniors Steve Leach, Dennis Brown, and sophmore Troy Wallin. With five junior letterwinners returning as tournament-tough veterans, the Saints can set their sights on another winning season in the '83-'84 campaign.

The St. Francis boys' basketball program is healthy. The proof was shown in the success of the freshman and J.V. teams from the 1982-83 season.

Despite having only eight players and a relative lack of heighth, the J.V. crew went 11-7. They won through hustle and determination. Troy Wallin was the scoring leader while Scott Libson led the crashing of the boards. Brian Grund handled the point and directed the offense. Shawn Daudt and Morgan Gerhard were also good all-around performers.

The Freshmen posted a fine 14-3 record. After losing their conference opener to Milaca 35-34, the Saints went on to destroy conference opponents. They capped their successful campaign with a big win over favored Cambridge. Scott Bahr was the team leader on a squad which operated with a positive attitude that helped them to excel.

1. M. Gerhard beats an opponent to the hoop for a fast-break bucket. 2. B. Grund charges up the court to spearhead a breakaway. 3. Coach L. Erickson expresses his winning satisfaction as Saints cluster to congratulate K. Lehne after his two free throws with seconds remaining beat Cambridge. 4. Freshmen S. Bahr and J. Elmquist team up to beat Cambridge foes to this rebound. 5. T. Wallin pushes up a left-handed layup..

GIRLS FACE BRIGHT FUTURE

When the end of the 1983 girls' basketball season came around, the outlook for the future was bright. The varsity was dominated by underclassmen with great potential. With only senior Laura Packard and senior co-captains Lisa Bjergo and Vicki Lenz graduated, STF will have a bundle of experienced players back.

The girls finished their conference season 7-6 and concluded their overall season with an 8-11 record. Junior Sandy Shebetka was the only All-Conference selection, and she was also the team's top rebounder. All-Conference Honorable Mention awards went to Lenz and sophomores Shelly Peterson and LaRee Winter. Bjergo was elected the team's Most Valuable Player by her teammates. The Hustle Award was shared by Packard and Peterson.

The Junior Varsity team posted an 11-6 record with a strong defensive philosophy. Michelle Schefers was a top all-around player while Donna Protas provided solid support on the inside. Sue Funk and Lynn Berglund were other instrumental players.

Rookie Coach Jeff Fink discovered an abundance of talent on the Saints' Freshman squad. After losing their first game to the White Bear Lake J.V. team, the STF freshmen rattled off 13 consecutive wins for a final 13-1 record. Leading scorers on the team were Rhonda Johnson and Nikki Stream, who were joined by Heidi Breitzmann as the leading rebounders. Joanie Lawrence was the floor leader. "The girls' coaching staff expects many more winning seasons from this bunch," said Coach Fink.

MIDDLEWEIGHTS PACE MATMEN

Middle lineup strength led to middle season strength for the Saints. After three conference losses, a senior-dominated nucleus of middleweights powered a streak of six clobberings of conference foes. Dave Schuldt (119), Scott Nelson (126-132), Dave Madden (132-138), Wayne Gehrke (138), Curt Lee (145) and Jack Havrilak (155) were the seniors who sparked the mid-season surge. The Saints finished third in the RRC and battled top teams Elk River, Cambridge and Coon Rapids in closely-contested meets.

Nelson was the team leader with a 23-2-2 record. He was the only all-conference selection and was tops in team points (54), falls (7) and near falls (19). Nelson was third in the region, missing a chance to go to state on a referee's decision. Havrilak, who also lost in overtime, and Madden both placed third in regions. Havrilak (13-6), eighth-grader Tony Pederson (12-5), Gehrke (10-6), Matt Williams (15-8), Brian Laine (13-10), Lee (12-10), Madden (11-7), Paul Cook (11-9), and Kerry Sherk (10-9-1) also posted winning records among the regulars. Laine, Pederson, Gehrke, Lee and Williams earned all-conference honorable mention. Others who saw varsity action included: Tom Berglund, Kevin Hauschild, Troy Ramacher, Dan Benolkin, Shane Daudt, Al Goldeman, Willie Sylvester, and Steve Whiteford. The Saints were 6-6 in dual meets.

SAINTS EARN STATE TRIP

Solid all-around play carried the Saints to the state softball tournament in 1983. The pitching of sophomore Sue Macal and the hitting of senior Lisa Bjergo and junior Carrie Johnson powered STF to a 16-4 record, a share of the conference championship, and a regional title that earned the team a trip to Bloomington's Dred Scott Fields for the state tourney. The Saints played eventual champion Hill-Murray tough, trailing 1-0 into the seventh inning, before falling 5-1 in the first round. STF had nudged Chisago Lakes 2-1 in eight innings to win the sub-region and tripped rival Cambridge 7-5 in the region final. Macal paced the team by posting a 15-3 pitching record and a 1.41 ERA. She was also a hitting leader with a .300 average and was voted the team MVP by her teammates. Johnson (.426) and Bjergo (.422) were the top sluggers while Sandy King (.300) and Shelly Peterson (.293) were other strong batters. Macal, Johnson, Bjergo and Peterson were All-Conference players while Amy Nutter earned Honorable Mention. "We knew we had good ball players," said Coach Vern Gilbertson. "We knew we could play with anyone, and we did it when we had to. We've got great potential with many players back, but we have to rise to the challenge as this team did so well."

BASEBALL TEAMS WIN 29, LOSE 11

The three baseball teams combined for an overall record of 29-11 during the 1983 season. Varsity Coach Dave Burns led his troops to an 11-7 record and a berth in the sub-regional championship where the Saints fell to Princeton. STF finished 6-4 in the conference for fourth place while seniors Steve Blaska, A.J. Nuebel and junior Steve Leach were named All-Conference. Junior Steve Priem was Honorable Mention. Nuebel paced the team with a .385 batting average to become the third best all-time Saints' slugger. Other top hitters included sophomore Jim Weidner (.370), senior Rich Navratil (.327), junior Dan Moore (.281), sophomore Shawn Daudt (.280), and senior Al Hagen (.270). Navratil led the team in at bats (55), doubles (5) and RBIs (20). Craig Mars drew 25 walks from his lead-off position to help the offense. Blaska was tops in runs scored (17) and home runs (2). Priem spurred the pitching staff with a 4-3 record and a 1.34 ERA. Priem struck out 44 opponents in 41 innings pitched. Senior Greg Moser (3-3), sophomore Jamie Heipel (2-0) Weidner (1-1) and Leach (1-1) were the other hurdlers. The JV team showed great promise by posting an 11-1 record and the freshmen were tough at 7-3.

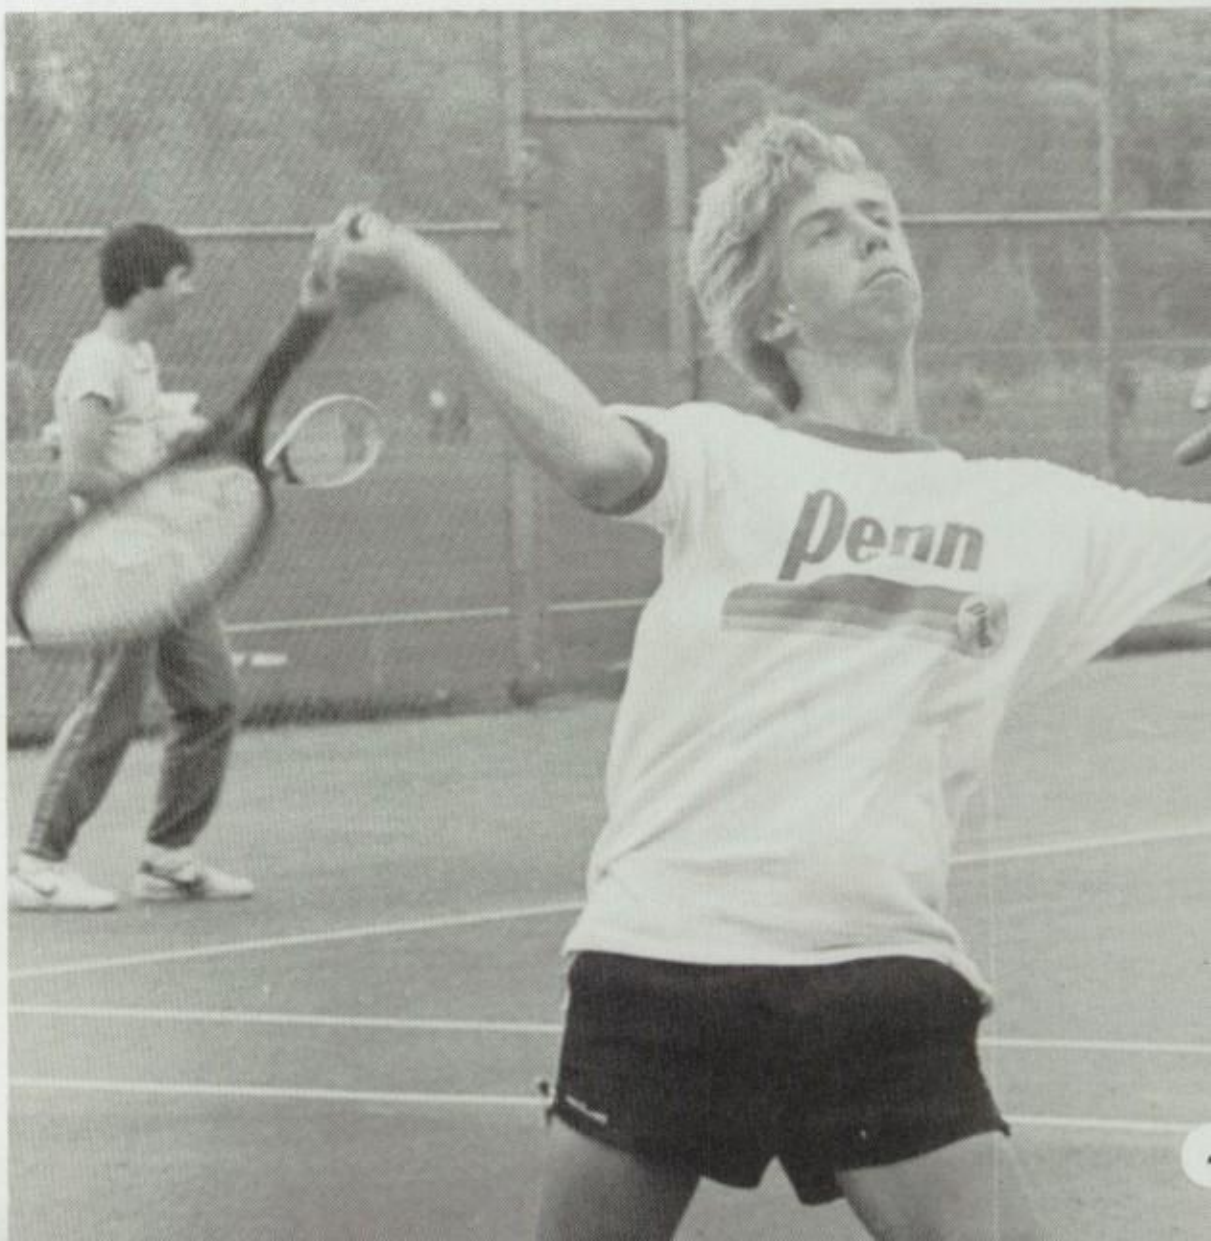
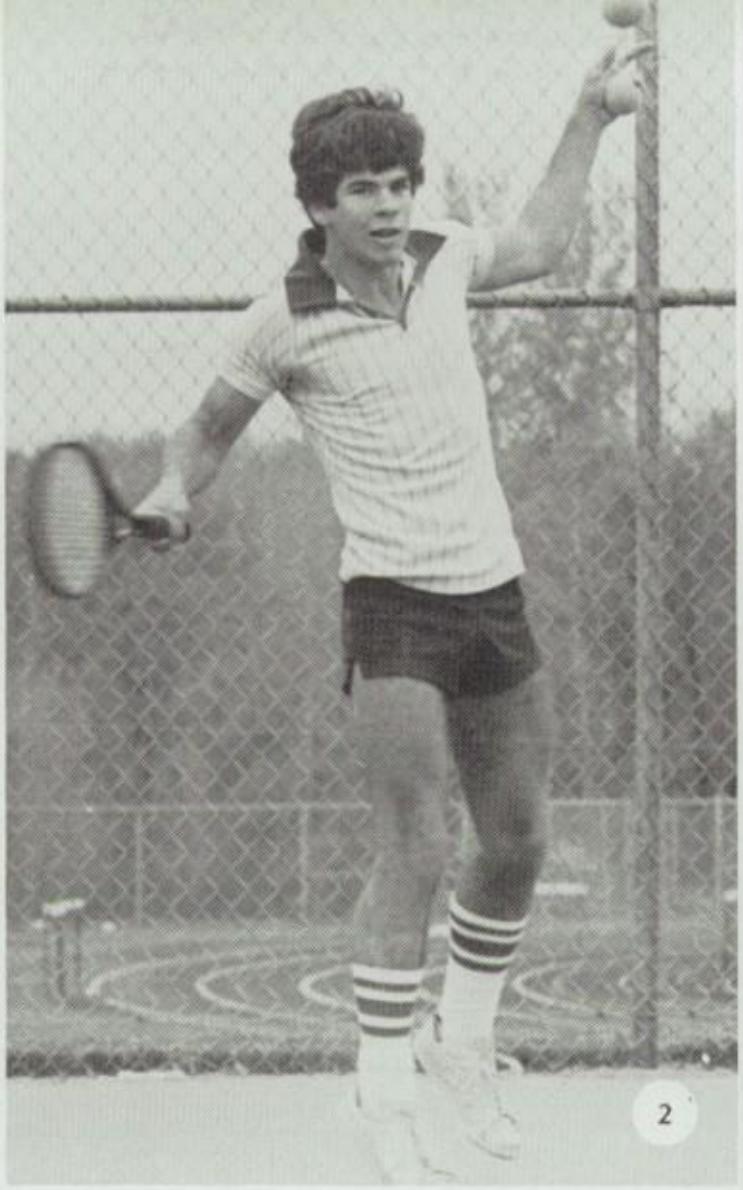
YOUTH DOMINATES BOYS' TENNIS TEAM

Youth, youth, and more youth. The Boys' Tennis team was loaded with underclassmen. Coach Ron Koehler guided this young bunch to an 8-4 record and a shot at the sub-regional championship where the Saints fell to Pine City 3-2. The team included the seventh-grade doubles combination of Jim Collins and Dave Smith, eighth-grader Jimmie Johnson at No. 3 Singles, as well as freshmen Mike Holden, Andy Nelson and Terry Thrun. Sophomores Morgan Gerhard, Matt Johnson, Chuck Pedley, Mike Horton, Paul Haugesag and Troy Klevgard were joined by juniors Joe Collins, Trent Morrison, Lonnie Morrison, Chris Wirz, and Jeff Myers to form a youthful nucleus.

Joe Collins posted a 9-4 individual record at No. 1 singles while Trent Morrison went 8-6 at No. 2. Young Jimmie Johnson finished 10-4 at No. 3. Collins and Morrison teamed up in doubles and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Region 7AA Tournament.



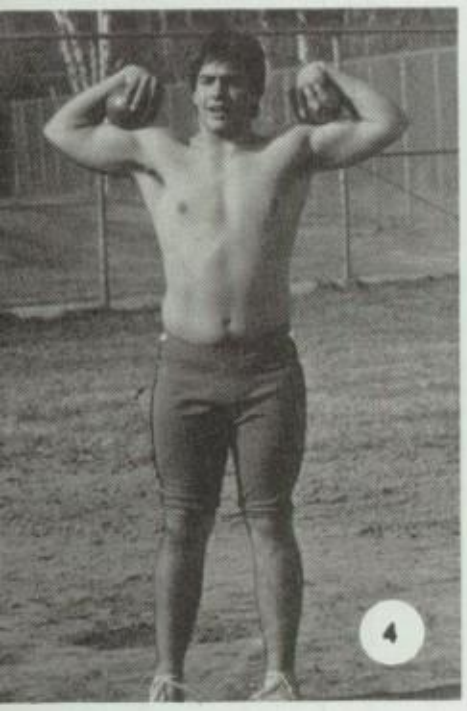


1. D. Smith tiptoes for an overhead backhand. 2. J. Myers watches his shot take off. 3. T. Morrison relaxes before the start of a match. 4. M. Gerhard snaps a serve. 5. Seventh-grade doubles team D. Smith and J. Collins work together. 6. T. Morrison shows the effort of a strong two-fisted backhand.

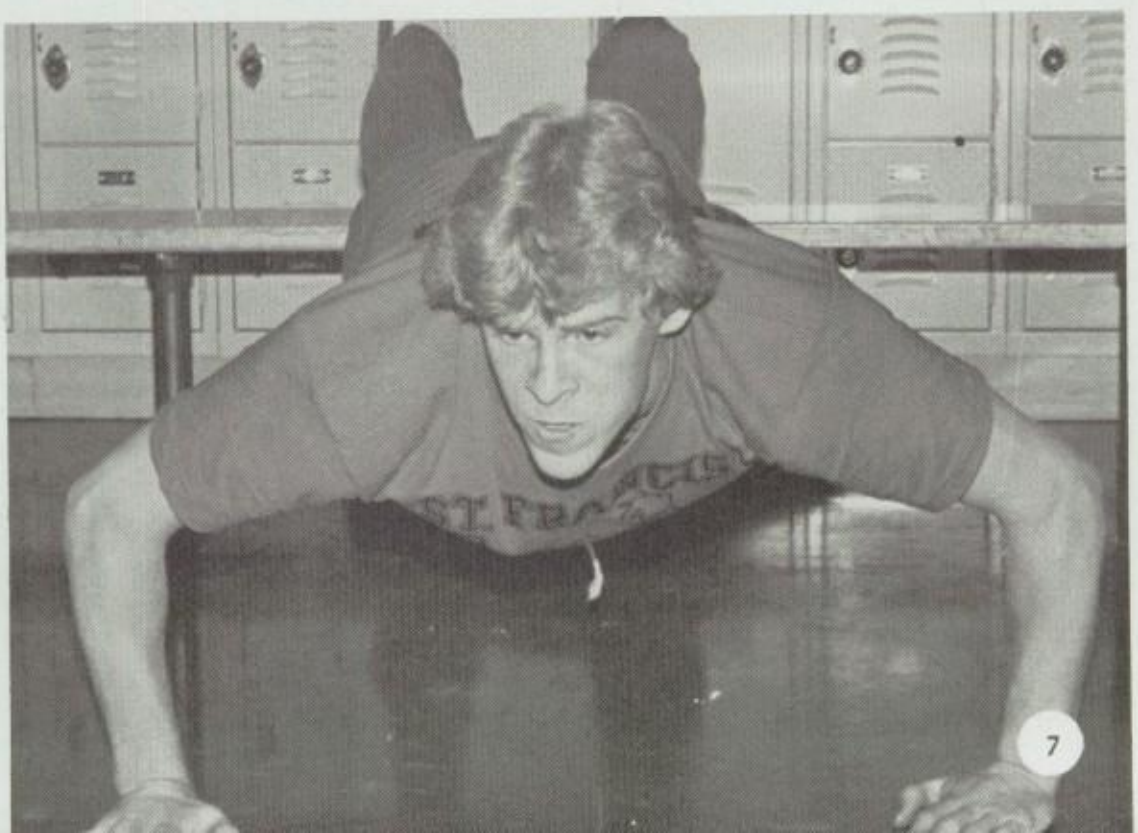
DAHMEN, DALSKE, ZIMBECK IN STATE

Senior hurdlemaster Jeff Dahmen sparked the boys' track team in 1983. He was voted MVP, earned 186½ team points, and placed fifth in the state in the 110-meter high hurdles. Dahmen also qualified for state in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles along with teammate Bob Dalske. High-jumper Rod Zimbeck was another state performer who placed sixth by leaping 6-5 to set a school record. Sophomore runner Rich Doll was voted Most Improved in a close vote with sophomore pole-vaulter Garry Christensen. Following Dahmen in team points were Dalske, Steve Busch, Derrick Poirier, Zimbeck, Jeremy Moe, Mark Braastad, Tim Ordner, Chuck Wallace, Jim Shipman, Chad Newman, and Joel Shipman as team leaders.

The Saints took first places at the Rum River Conference Indoor Meet, the Foley Triangular, and the Sub-Regional Meet. STF was second at the Conference Meet on our home track and sixth at Regionals in Grand Rapids.



1. C. Newman oomphs the shot put. 2. Runners take off on another sprint around the oval during practice. 3. B. Dalske and J. Dahmen churn past a set of hurdles. 4. T. Berglund – "Man of Steel!" 5. M. Braastad pushes to the finish line ahead of conference competition in a relay race. 6. J. Moe flies over a hurdle. 7. Relaxing on the Port-a-Pit.



1. The 1983 Boys' Track team. 2. S. Busch stretches to get every inch he can out of this long jump. 3. R. Zimbeck is over the bar for another successful high jump. 4. G. Christensen vaults into the sky during practice. 5. S. Busch strains to catch the leaders in the conference 100. 6. Group goofiness is a trait of tracksters. 7. J. Moe huffs and puffs as he pumps push-ups in the locker room.

CARPENTIER, SCHUSTER LEAD TEAM

Would the snow ever disappear? This was the big question during the spring girls' track season. Once the snow did go away, the team was raring to go. With only three seniors on the squad, underclassmen were once again a vital force in the success of the Saints.

Sophomore Michelle Carpentier led the way by blazing her hurdle trail to the state meet in both the 100 and 200-meter races. She placed fourth in the 100 and sixth in the 200. Her season bests in those events were 14.6 and 29.3, respectively. Carpentier won both events in the conference meet as well as helping the 800-meter relay to win.

Senior sprinter Michelle Schuster was voted team MVP as she contributed strongly to the team's success for the fourth straight year. Schuster was conference champion in the 200-meter dash and anchored the first-place 400 and 800-meter relay quartets. The All-Conference runners on the 400 relay were Heidi Breitzmann, Renee Joersz, Kelly Regan, and Schuster. The runners on the All-Conference 800 relay team were Regan, Michelle Carpentier, Kim Dahmen and Schuster.

Joersz was the only other conference champion as she won the long jump. The Saints placed second as a team in conference and then followed with a second-place finish in the sub-regionals. STF placed sixth in the Region 7AA Meet. The Saints registered first-place performances at the RRC Relays on our home field and at the RRC Indoor Meet at St. Cloud State University.

Sophomore Dawn Banken set a school record with her 12:19.1 running of the 3200-meter event. Other team leaders included Joersz and Breitzmann (100), Lori Shebetka (shot put and discus), Dahmen (400), Sandy Shebetka (100 hurdles), Dee Braastad (high jump) and Rhonda Johnson (1600), Liz Buerkle (800).

BRIAN WICHT: STRONG WILL, STRONG SPIRIT

Brian Wicht was a very special person. He was friendly, and was strong. He was determined to enjoy life and made every effort to do so, but he never even got the opportunity to enjoy his 17th birthday. When Brian found out that he had a fatal disease that started in the thymus gland and spread throughout his bone marrow, he was as determined as ever to beat it so that it wouldn't stand in the way of him reaching the goals he had set for himself.

Brian continued coming to school and went on with the same activities he had always loved. He was a defensive tackle on the varsity football team and kept up with practices as best he could. Number 52 was in full uniform during the Saints' final home game of the season. Brian was also an active hunter and fisherman. He made some outdoor excursions in the fall even though his strength was rapidly diminishing. Another activity Brian had set his heart on was the St. Francis High School choir trip to Scandinavia. Although he wasn't feeling well, Brian raised enough money to go. The Scandinavian trip gave Brian an added incentive in his serious struggle against the odds that he would not admit to.

As time went on, things were not looking good. Brian had to quit coming to school because of the pain. Most of us say we can't stand coming to school or that we just want to come to see our friends. But Brian really found out how much he missed school and the chance to see his friends. That's something we don't think about often enough. The support and visits from his friends were very important to Brian during his struggle. He wanted to persevere for them, and he didn't want to let them down. They meant the world to him.

Another crucial element in Brian's fight for life was his family. It is a close family, and they stood by him every day and never allowed his spirits to falter. They were strong like Brian. When things got worse, Brian finally realized that it wasn't going to get better. Still, he wouldn't give in. March 2, one day before his 17th birthday, the disease at last overtook him and he was free from the pain he had endured for six months. His perseverence showed how much he wanted to go on with his life. Even though he had a short time, Brian Wicht enjoyed that time.

THE BEST OF TIMES . . .

As the couples strolled in, arrayed in fine garments of all varieties, the mood of the evening was set. The 1983 Junior-Senior Prom was to be "The Best of Times." Blainbrook Hall was the scene of this decorous and festive event on the night of April 30.

Clothing ranged from tuxedos of different colors for the men to long, flowing gowns of pastel luxuriance for the young ladies. This atmosphere of romance and sophistication prevailed throughout the evening.

Music became the catalyst. The guests, invigorated by the sounds of "Freefall," soon shed their tuxedo tops and danced the night away . . .

Anderson is taking time out to relax.

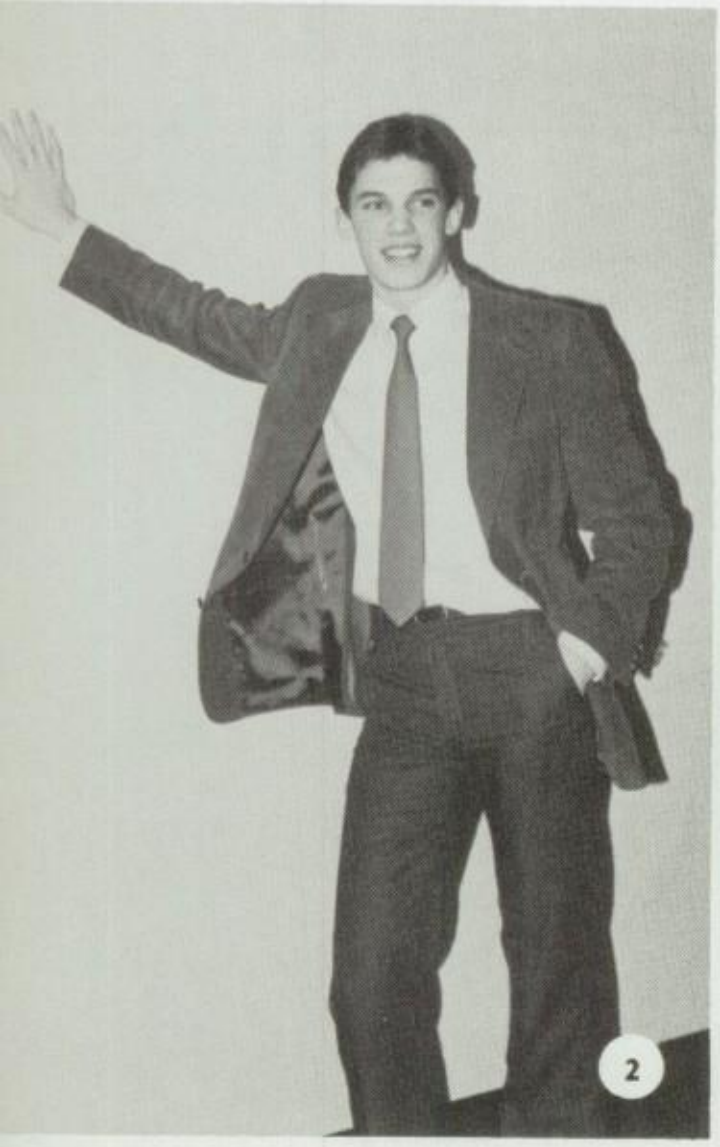
SPIRIT DAYS

Be weird. Be different. Be your hidden self. Spirit Days throughout the school year are your opportunity to do just that.

Homecoming Week was the start of the madness we call Spirit Days. Monday was flooded with a variety of oddness because it was Hats, Bibs and Buttons Day. The punkers came out in bunches on Tuesday. Girls were challenged to keep their ribbons on Wednesday's Hush Day, not an easy task. Thursday was time to slave away for your "favorite" person. Students showed their classy side on Friday's Dress-Up Day.

Snow Week offered more craziness. Sweats Day opened the week, while punkers came out of the woodwork again on Tuesday. Wednesday was the boys' turn to zip their lips. It was grease back your hair and get out the saddle shoes on Thursday. Friday was everyone's turn to be an "Urban Cowperson."



1. This trio had a knack for making boys chatter and collected a batch of ribbons to prove their charms: D. Arends, S. Murphy and D. Bergman. 2. Junior Jared Elmquist is relaxed and stylish on Dress-Up Day. 3. Sophomore A. Burgoyne is decked out in punky flair. 4. A hard hat and a soft hat were among the headgear on Bibs, Buttons and Hats Day as freshmen L. Coop and T. Harju display. 5. Goffiness was contagious during Spirit Days as L. Buchta, T. Osmondson, G. Pittman, J. Blum, J. Bursch and W. Engel show.

DEAR RUTH

BLITHE SPIRIT

5. During a seance, an ectoplasmic manifestation appears in the picture frame of the Charles Condomine home. The ghostly apparition is T. Harms (Elvira) as she returns to haunt A. Charrier (Charles). J. Knutson, L. Fanucci and J. Kuehl are the other members of the circle. 6. The entire cast of Blithe Spirit takes the stage to receive the applause of the audience. (L to R) L. Fanucci, J. Knutson, J. Kuehl, A. Charrier, T. Harms, M. Falck, K. Bolstad. 7. J. Knutson (Dr. Bradmann) grabs M. Falck (Madame Arcotti) and hurls her onto the sofa to snap her out of her hypnotic trance. J. Kuehl (Ruth) and A. Charrier watch in astonishment.

Graduation night begins with preparations – students picking up their flowers and posing for photos with friends and relatives. Then comes the long lineup down the hallway, adjusting of gowns and caps, and trying to keep calm and cool as the tension grows. The whole class is finally together enjoying this time of celebration. Marching in to the Prelude is the seniors' chance to be in the limelight.

The speakers take their turns at the microphone: Kathi Heckenlaible, Steve Florman, Andrea Hahn, and Mike Egan. While listening, thoughts float through the minds of the graduates, "Will we keep in touch with these friends?"

Valedictorian Mike Egan, who graduated with a 4.043 grade-point-average, led the awards by earning the "All-Around Student" selection. Salutatorian Dave Foley and Teresa Geroux received the citizenship awards. Scholarships ranged from $50 to $500 from community and school organizations.

Afterwards people gathered in the Commons for hugs and tears, happy and sad emotions . . . and a final goodbye to St. Francis High.
